

HONDA / LG PLANT

JEFFERSON TOWNSHIP-WASHINGTON COURT HOUSE JEDD

What is an Ohio JEDD? A Joint Economic Development District is an agreement between two parties: a township and a municipality (i.e., city or village) that share benefits and responsibilities of development projects. JEDDs impose a tax on the area, and profits go toward both the township and municipality.

The Honda/LG Jedd is a withholding tax of 1.95% on employees working within the JEDD boundaries and a net profit tax of 1.95% for Companies doing business at the worksite.

The City of Washington collects the withholding and net-profit taxes for the JEDD.
